What Matters to God?

Greg and I have a friend whose garage has a large poster of a sleek red Ferrari, with a caption that reads, "The one who dies with the most toys wins." Our friend has an enormous home, beautifully decorated, and all the "toys" to go with it—a pool, several sports cars, a boat, some jet skis, an airplane, and even another home for vacations. You'd think that his life is full of the joy of play, but of course he has to work extremely hard to pay for all this stuff. And in fact, when he's not working, our friend spends most of his time maintaining the stuff—cleaning, storing, repairing, painting, and otherwise tending to all of his possessions rather than enjoying them. We rarely see him relaxed.

If that's winning, I think I'll pass. And yet, it's so easy to get caught up in the race to "die with the most toys." I can't even hold up our friend as a bad example, because if I had his wealth, I'm afraid that I might also want to collect a lot of fabulous stuff! Perhaps many of us are prone to being like the rich man in today's gospel from Luke, who builds ever-bigger barns to store all his accumulated "grain and other goods," only to hear the voice of God calling him to account: "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?"

The point, of course, is that the one who dies with the most toys . . . well . . . dies. And then someone else gets the toys! True wealth, as Jesus reminds us in this parable, is found in "what matters to God." Fortunately, Luke's gospel names the things that matter to God: prayer, honesty, generosity, mercy, love for the other—qualities that won't be taken away, but are given to us by God to cherish and share.

Peace,

Deborah Wilhelm

Our annual Oak Hollow Planning Retreat at the Clarke Cousins' Camp in Cayucos

Join the Cursillo Community for our Summer Ultreyas: Cursillistas and those interested in Cursillo are invited to join us for faith sharing and fellowship at an Ultreya on Saturday, August 14 at 7:00 PM at St. Benedict's in Hollister. Our September Ultreya will be held on Saturday, September 11 at 7:00 PM at Sacred Heart in Salinas. This is a great opportunity to find out more about Cursillo and for Cursillistas to rekindle the movement in their lives. Please visit our website for more information about our upcoming events and for candidate and team applications. If you have any questions, please call either your local Cursillo parish representative, or Cindy Vierra at (831) 757-5193, or visit our website at www.montereycursillo.org.

Benefit Pasta Dinner: You are invited to join us for our 3rd Annual Pasta Dinner to benefit the Diocese of Monterey's English Cursillo Community. It will be held on August 21 from 5:00 - 8:00 PM at Richards Hall at Our Lady of Refuge in Castroville. Dinner for $8.00 includes pasta with your choice of meat sauce & meatballs, or artichoke sauce, salad, bread, dessert and beverages. In addition to the dinner we will also be holding a raffle. Tickets are one for $1.00 or six for $5.00. To purchase dinner tickets and raffle tickets please call Cindy Stefani at (831) 633-5012

PLEASE NOTE: During our remodeling this summer, all Masses will be celebrated in our parish hall. Following Mass on weekends, the hospitality and social gatherings will be in Room 5 and outside under the shade canopy. Thank you for your understanding and patience during this time.
